

Jubilation!

AMBASSADORS ON A SACRED JOURNEY

Volunteer &
Docent Application

Become a Jubilation! Volunteer

Help Bring History to Life.
Share the Story.
Welcome the Community.
Inspire the Next Generation.

The Kentucky Center for African American Heritage invites community members to become part of something extraordinary. From September 18, 2026, through February 28, 2027, the Heritage Center will host Jubilation! Ambassadors on a Sacred Journey, an immersive national exhibition exploring the remarkable story of the Fisk Jubilee Singers and the evolution of African American sacred music.

Whether you enjoy working with students, greeting visitors, leading tours, or supporting special events, there is a place for you on our team. We're looking for individuals who enjoy learning, meeting new people, and sharing history with visitors from Louisville, across Kentucky, and beyond. As a volunteer or docent, you will be helping visitors experience one of the most inspiring stories in American history.

No previous museum experience is necessary. Training will be provided.

Volunteer Opportunities

Opening Night
Gallery Docents
Exhibition tours
Exhibition Programs
School groups
Special Events
Community Outreach
Administrative Volunteers

Who Should Apply?

Retired educators
College students
Church members
Musicians and choir members
Community leaders
Museum lovers
Corporate volunteer groups
African American history enthusiast

Ready to Join Us?
Complete the online Volunteer & Docent Application today.

<https://forms.gle/ANNim3uGLGWdW8vL9>

1701 West Muhammad Ali Blvd.
Louisville, Kentucky 40203

